Vol.88 No.2

THE PARISH OF ST. CLEMENT
An Inclusive and Caring Christian Community

February 2017

From Canon Kate

This past month we celebrated Epiphany and the coming of the magi to the infant Jesus to honor him with gifts. What is represented by the wise men approaching Jesus is humanity's response to the God who comes to us. God comes to us at Christmas and becomes incarnate. We come to God during Epiphany. The magi symbolize to us the coming of the gentiles and all of humanity to the presence of God now made manifest in Jesus and now present to us. God comes to us at Christmas. In Epiphany, we come to God in response to God having already come to us.

Christmas is a time when we celebrate the incarnation. A parishioner just this week asked me what the word, incarnation, actually meant. Please allow me a bit of description about the etymology of the word, incarnation.

Carne, from the Latin, means flesh. Whether we realize it or not, we know the Latin root of the term carne in our English word: incarnation. The Latin word, carne, shows up in English in words like: carnivore (flesh or meat eater), carnal (of the flesh), carnival (carne+vale, two Latin words which mean "flesh," and "farewell"). So, the carnival which takes place the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday and which is so exuberantly celebrated in New Orleans (also known as Mardi Gras from the French meaning Fat Tuesday), and in the countries of Trinidad and Tobago and Brazil has its roots in saying farewell to all of the fleshly desires on Fat Tuesday in order to prepare for the coming of Lent on Ash Wednesday. Lent is a time when things of the flesh and other desires are put aside and said "goodbye to" in a period designated for fasting, sacrifice, and almsgiving in preparation for Easter.

The incarnation refers to the en-fleshment of God. God becomes flesh. God becomes human in Jesus. This is what we just celebrate at Christmas. We celebrate the fact that God loved us so much that God sent God's only son to become human and one of us in the very same flesh that we share. In this way, the creator has joined with the creation and lifts the creation up and into the creator for all time. We are joined to God forever through the incarnation of Jesus in human flesh.

As I write this article explaining the incarnation and the celebration we just had with Jesus coming to us in the flesh at Christmas, I also realize that this is the article for the February newsletter and that Lent will soon be upon us almost as soon as you read this. Christmas is a time when we celebrate the fact that God chose to come to us. Epiphany is a season in which we acknowledge that it is up to us to respond to God's invitation to move the journey of our lives in a direction toward God. Lent is a time when we are challenged to refocus our lives once more on the gift of grace freely given to us with no merit or action on our part.

I hope you had a blessed Christmas, a challenging Epiphany and I also pray that we will all have a holy Lent.

~~ Blessings,
Canon Kate+

Mahalo Nui Loa

♥ To Pam Fern, Beth Fincke, Adrienne Lau, and Mary Carpenter for assembling the annual reports and the parish directories. Your assistance was invaluable.

♥ To our Sexton, Stan Ornellas, for doing such a wonderful job sanding and refinishing the Brodhead Memorial bench in the yard between the church and parish hall. It's beautiful! (see photo on p.4)

♥ [correction to the January 2017 "Mahalos"] To Arthur Buto, Beth Charlton, Helena Ishida, Adrienne Lau, Heather McVay, Wade Nobuhara, and Kingsley Wong for all their hard work on the Rector Search Committee.

♥ To our newly-elected vestry members Dana Anderson, Kimberly Frank, Scott Hauger, and Carol Taylor Kim for their willingness to serve as leaders in the parish

♥ To our returning vestry members Michelle Comeau, Pam Fern, Beth Fincke, Kehau Kali Berquist, and Tom McManus for your continued commitment to St. Clement's.

♥ To our 2017 diocesan convention delegates Dana Anderson, Mary Carpenter, Kimberly Frank, Trey Frank, Scott Hauger, and Susan Palmore and to our convention alternates Rich Lowe and Martha Morgan for participating in the church outside the walls of St. Clement's.

Celebration of a
New Ministry

At 3 pm on Sunday, February 12, Fr. Christopher Golding will be installed as the new Vicar at Emmanuel Episcopal Church in Kailua (780 Keolu Drive). You are invited to attend. Please RSVP to office@emmanuelkailua.com

Ash Wednesday
March 1, 2017

Services on Ash Wednesday, March 1st, will be held at 12 noon and 6 pm. Please join us for a good beginning to a holy Lent.

Punahou Carnival Parking
Fundraiser

Friday & Saturday, Feb. 3 & 4

It's not too late to volunteer to help out at St. Clement's main Fundraiser.

- There are plenty of open slots left for Parking Attendants, Runners, Cashiers, and Key Baggers.
- Shifts are for just 3 hours between 7 am and 11:30 pm on Friday, and between 9:30 am and 11:30 pm on Saturday.

We really need your help.

Please call Keli`i deFrancia at 670-4448 to find out where/when you're needed most.

This year we've arranged free parking for our volunteers at St. Mary's Episcopal Church after 6 pm on Friday and any time on Saturday. We will have a shuttle to get you back and forth to St. Mary's.

This is a great way to get to know other parishioners, help fund our 2017 budget, and have lots of fun while doing so.

Epiphany Sunday

It was a special Family Sunday on January 8, at the 10:15 service. Our Sunday School assisted at the service by reading and presenting tableaus during each of the readings. Photos by Lauren Romagnoli and Liz Baldwin.

Directory Addition

There was an omission in the 2017 Directory which was distributed at the annual meeting on January 29.

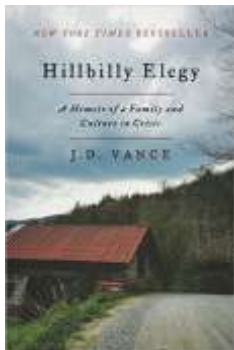

Please add:
Ann Halsted, 3232 Keahi St,

If you weren't at the annual meeting and would like a copy of the new directory (bright blue cover), please contact the office at 955-7745 or parishadmin@stclem.org.

Adult Discussion Group Sundays in February

The Adult Discussion group continues on Sunday mornings from 8:45 am to 10 am. We are currently reading Hillbilly Elegy: A memoir of a Family and Culture in Crisis by J.D. Vance. More copies of the book are available. Please do join us.

Vestry Highlights

January 2017

The vestry met on January 10, 2017. Highlights of the January meeting include:

The Vestry approved a budget for 2017 to be presented at the annual meeting.

The nominations committee reported that there were five candidates for the three three-year slots and one candidate for the one-year slot for vestry. They also reported that there were seven candidates for the six delegates needed for diocesan convention.

The search committee reported that the profile had been send to the bishop. The bishop had a number of suggested changes that will now need to be incorporated into the profile.

The Interim Rector reported that all of the vestry officers were willing to serve again in 2017.

~~ Submitted by Moani Crowell
Clerk of the Vestry

The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, February 15 at 6 pm. Parishioners are welcome and encouraged to attend the Vestry Meetings. We serve a light supper prior to the meeting and enjoy having visitors.

Rector Search Committee: Update

The committee submitted the draft of the Parish Profile to the Bishop earlier this month. After reviewing it, he provided us with some additional ideas and suggestions which we are now in the process of incorporating into the profile.

We are also very happy to receive the expertise of Canon Sandy Graham who came to the Diocese just a few months ago. He is here to assist all congregations as they go through the transition process and he will be offering his insight and guidance as we go through our transition here at St. Clement's.

We are very much looking forward to posting the profile and to then beginning the process of interviewing potential candidates.

We thank you for your support and ask for your continuing prayers as we continue on this important journey.

~~ Respectfully submitted,
Adrienne Lau

A View from the Pew

“Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on Earth will be bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on Earth will be loosed in Heaven”

Jesus / Matthew 18:18

Epiphany, the third Liturgical Season of the Church, is the season during which we recall how God was and is revealed in Jesus. As a result, inescapably, it is also when we recall how God was and is revealed in the rest of God’s Creation, including Humanity, meaning you and me.

In the Bible, Humanity, “ben Adam” in ancient Hebrew, meant the “Son of Man.” Additionally, Humanity was and is created in the Image of God. So how can Humanity be the Son of Man if also we were and are created by God? That is, if we are the “Son of Man,” implying the children of Humanity, and if we were created by God, implying God is our Parent or “The Father” as described in the Bible, then doesn’t this logically, granted cyclically, mean that God and Humanity are one in the same? God created Humanity ~ Humanity created Humanity ~ Humanity created God ~ God created God?

On the surface, the answer is easy: “No.” God first created “Adam,” and then the rest of us, meaning Humanity, are descended from him. As a result, allegorically like DNA, the God in Adam has been passed down from generation to generation into all of Humanity right down to the present day, and will continue to be passed down as long as there is Humanity.

However, here is the difficult part, in Matthew 18:20, Jesus tell us: “For where two or three are gathered in My name, I am there among them.”

What is so hard about this? Superficially, it is easy to explain that, in his infinite mercy and love, Jesus graciously appears when at least two or three of us faithful believers come together to worship with and/or minister to one another in his name. And, quite frankly, given how infinitely merciful, loving, and gracious Jesus is, it is a good explanation.

Yet, it is not that easy, as if anything Jesus ever said or did was. It isn’t even the point. If you put in context only Verse 20 in Chapter 18 of Matthew with just the verse before it, not to mention all of the verses before that and thereafter in Chapter 18, this is not a discussion or lesson about belief, faith, mercy, love, or grace. It is about Humanity’s interdependent relationship with God and one another, and the interdependent relationship of our earthly experience with our experience in heaven. Jesus is telling us that our relationship with God and one another, and that our Human experience now and our heavenly experience to come, are all mutually inclusive, meaning they are intimately related to the point of being inseparable. In other words, they do not and cannot occur independent of one another.

As a result, taken in the context, Verse 20 of Chapter 18 of Matthew is not saying that God as revealed in Jesus is going to appear any time or every time two or three of us come together in his name. In fact, if we read the verse carefully, it never said or meant that at all. Instead of appearing to us, the verse says there among us. In other words, Jesus does not somehow arrive when we gather together in his name. On the contrary, Jesus is and was already there, but waits to be revealed as such when we commune with one another in his name. We can make all of the ado about the Presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Holy Eucharist as we want to, and to be sure, there is much ado to be made, but if we, meaning you and me, are not there in his name, then neither is Jesus and, no matter what kind of or how many ecclesiastical blessings are made, his body and blood will not be there either.

We are the Communion. We are the individual members that make up the complete Body of Christ. As God is fully revealed in Christ, we the individual, incomplete and imperfect Images of God collectively and perfectly complete God’s Image. Individually, we are isolated, alone, incomplete and unfulfilled, and nowhere near realizing our full human and spiritual potential. We can deny God, we can refuse God, we can flee God, but we cannot escape God any more than we can escape our own Humanity, not to mention one another. We, too, in all of our frailties and deficiencies, are God revealed.

“Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in Heaven.”

Jesus / Matthew 18:19
